Pedestrian Injury on State Highway 16

On Wednesday, September 29, 2021, at approximately 6:30 p.m., a Waukesha County Sheriff's Office Deputy observed a 17-year-old-female jump off of the overpass of northbound County Highway C onto westbound State Highway 16 in the Village of Nashotah. The Deputy immediately began to render aid until Emergency Medical Services arrived on scene.

Assistance was received from the Town of Oconomowoc, Villages of Chenequa, Oconomowoc Lake, Pewaukee and City of Delafield Police Departments for traffic control. Lake County and Hartland Fire Departments responded as well as Flight for Life.

The 17-year-old-female was transported by Flight for Life to an area hospital due to serious injuries where she is admitted for treatment.

State Highway 16 and County Highway C were closed for approximately 90 minutes.

This incident remains under investigation by the Waukesha County Sheriff's Office.
